

Fitness Rewards

Turn Movement Into Measurable Impact

Motivate Movement. Inspire Commitment. Reward Wellness.

IncentFit's Fitness Rewards program turns everyday movement into meaningful motivation. Employees can earn real rewards for walking, biking, running, or working out – no matter where or how they exercise.

With integrations across 35+ fitness apps and devices, tracking is seamless, participation is inclusive, and results are measurable.

Simple by Design and Powerful in Results

With IncentFit's automated tracking, flexible options, and real-time insights, your team can focus on feeling good while you stay focused on outcomes.

Rewards That Motivate

Incentives create a feedback loop that increases consistency and accountability.

Flexible Tracking

Employees can sync with their favorite fitness apps or manually self-report activities.

Real-Time Data and Reporting

Stay informed with real-time insights into participation, activity trends, and engagement.

Effortless Administration

Automated payouts, customizable rules, and full support creates a seamless experience.

Built for Inclusivity

IncentFit's Fitness Rewards program supports all employees – not just gym-goers or athletes. Whether someone takes daily walks or runs marathons, this program recognizes movement in any form.

- Walking or Running
- Biking
- Gym Visits or Strength Training
- Fitness Classes (in-person or virtual)
- ... and more!
